

ENDS LIFE FOR LOVE OF GIRL HE MET ONLY TWO OR THREE TIMES

Young Woman, of Whose Photos He Had Many,
Never Gave Him One.

BELLA DEVINE.

When Hildaigo, the young Porto Rican who shot and killed himself last night in his room at No. 141 West 100th street, was found, he was holding a large picture of a pretty girl which he had propped up on the bed. The girl, nineteen-year-old Bella Devine, of No. 24 West Ninety-eighth street, a pretty brunette, slender and dark, declared she had never given Hildaigo a single one of the fifty or more pictures of her which adorned the room and which filled the young man's pockets.

She had been introduced to him shortly before the Christmas holidays, and with her mother's permission in-duced him to a card party at her home. The departure of her guests the next morning was a surprise to her, but she discovered that a photograph of Hildaigo was missing from a table but the owner suspected Hildaigo of taking it. The police believe now that the love-stricken youth had all his other pictures reproduced from this one.

Miss Devine said that Hildaigo had never called on her again and she had seen him only once more, on last Tuesday night, when she was coasting with a party of young folk on the hill in One Hundred and Third street. Hildaigo had stood on the sidewalk and watched them a few minutes and she had waved to him. That was the last she saw of him, but that night he went home and told Ernest Lantz, son of his landlady, that life was no longer worth living, that the girl he loved had no use for him and that he saw no hope of future happiness.

Yesterday he announced he was too ill to go to his work as stenographer for Isaac Kubie at No. 36 Maiden lane, and last night Mrs. Ida Lobo, a daughter of Mrs. Kanta, heard a shot in a dented room to find him dead.

Hildaigo's family is said to be prominent in Porto Rico. He was twenty-two years old and had been here only a short time.

Never Missopoints Rubbersocks.

Kearney F. Speedy, the "dare devil" diver, didn't perform his thrilling feat of diving off the tower of Madison Square Garden to-day into a tank, 125 feet below, containing three feet of water, because he was disappointed.

Some 3,000 rubbersocks gathered in the park below to see the stunt and were disappointed.

The management of the Sportmen's show, in connection with which the dive was to be made, said a disagreement with Speedy caused the thriller to be called off, but the crowd in the street thought it was a case of cold feet on the part of Mr. Speedy.

The DOCTOR'S ADVICE

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character; the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers should apply to any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, Colburn Building, Colburn Building, Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious name will be used in my answers. The prescriptions are filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

"Doctor: What can I take for a bad case of indigestion? I have suffered with it for many years and nothing I take helps it. I am also bothered with constipation."

Answer: You should not neglect indigestion and constipation, as it leads to more serious trouble; very frequently appendicitis is caused by the neglect of these ailments. They are treated by laxatives. These are packed in sealed cartons, with full directions for taking. What shall I do?

"P. H. C.": "When a man is down and out, with such symptoms as loss of appetite, insomnia, irritability and a listless, tired feeling even after a night's rest, he should be given a restorative. These are packed in sealed cartons, with full directions for taking. What shall I do?"

Answer: Night living and a powerful habitless invigorating tonic, such as a genuine cod-liver oil, should cause your life force to accrue to you. Great care should be taken to restore your life force to its normal state. My invigorating tonic will gradually improve and build up your health.

"Mrs. W. W.": "I weigh 150 pounds; see much for my height."

Answer: Yes, you should be taking, to see the directions which accompany a genuine cod-liver oil, put up in sealed boxes and only by well-stocked drug stores. I have very good for any fleshy person to take.

"Ann B.": "I have been having trouble with my liver and kidneys, but I don't know what to do. I have constant headaches and dizzy spells. What shall I do?"

Answer: The best remedy that I know for your trouble is a genuine cod-liver oil. It will build up your health, and it will give you the strength and energy that you need. It is packed in sealed cartons, with full directions for taking. What shall I do?

"Ray Mother": "Bedwetting can be easily controlled in children by using a genuine cod-liver oil. I have tried many remedies, but I don't know what to do. I have very good for any fleshy person to take."

"Old Couple": "My wife and I are both victims of indigestion and constipation. We have tried many remedies, but I don't know what to do. I have very good for any fleshy person to take."

Answer: The ordinary symptoms from such diseases are suffering under the eyes, swelling ankles, liveraches, dry skin, bloodshot eyes, pains like rheumatism and a too constant or constant flow of urine, with frequent urination, especially at night. The best prescription is a genuine cod-liver oil. It will build up your health, and it will give you the strength and energy that you need. It is packed in sealed cartons, with full directions for taking. What shall I do?

"Mrs. W.": "I have suffered with a bad cough for some time and I am also weak and tired most of the time, which I think is due to the excess coughing. Can you give me a remedy?"

Answer: Yes, your cough is due to the weakness of your lungs, and it will be relieved by a genuine cod-liver oil. It will build up your health, and it will give you the strength and energy that you need. It is packed in sealed cartons, with full directions for taking. What shall I do?
